Aggiornamento di Dota 2 del 18 luglio 2022 18 lug - Aumentata la velocità di ricerca delle partite per le modalità di gioco con meno giocatori.- Risolto un bug in cui l'interfaccia non consentiva di selezionare allo stesso tempo regioni geografiche con bassa e alta latenza nella ricerca avversari per regione geografica.- La gemma cinetica "Giro spettrale" ora si applica correttamente quando il set Arcano di Wrath King è in uso.- Aggiunto un effetto sonoro quando gli alleati condividono un oggetto con il tuo Eroe. Dota 2 Petition - Enable Purchase of Persona/Immortals I understand and like the exclusivity of purchasing the item during battle pass season.. but I think if this is the reasoning why not give people a fair shot of working toward those items somehow? Specifically I want to purchase the anti-mage persona. I didn't purchase it at the time because I somewhat hated the direction of the hero at the time, but I very much like it now and think the persona is awesome. Sadly, there's no way to get it. This seems unfortunate but remediable? Hoping you all will join... 34 minuti fa Discussioni generali Visualizza gli oggetti del Workshop di Steam Додоможіть, може хто спіткався та вирішив Доброго, зіткнувся з проблемою що після запуску доти буквально через кілька секунд замирає екран але звук є, та є звукові відклики коли натискаю в сліпу, при цьому картинка висить, купив новий і5 процесор, спеціально для гри в доту, 4гб оперативної пам'яті, докочав всі дотаркони LCD, ... 23 minuti fa Discussioni generali So are we just cool with BKB and Blink deciding every game? Burst actions through Blink that completely undermine skill since there's no reacting to it, and BKB locking out most any non-right clicker from playing the game. Abuse these two items better and you win. Don't and you lose. That's it. That's dota. That's literally the whole game. Are we just okay with this?... 9 minuti fa Discussioni generali Visualizza gli oggetti del Workshop di Steam Aggiornamento di Dota 2 del 12 luglio 2022 12 lug - Risolto un bug che faceva applicare Collegamento statico di Razor esclusivamente al bersaglio secondario quando veniva lanciato su due Eroi affetti da Legame spirituale di Grimstroke. Per incoraggiare questo stile di gioco stiamo introducendo alcune modifiche sperimentali con la patch di oggi per migliorare la qualità complessiva delle partite per questi tipi di giochi:- Ora i gruppi completi possono scontrarsi con qualsiasi squadra avversaria valida e non sono più obbligati a scontrarsi con un gruppo completo in modalità classificata.- La messa a punto delle partite classificate è stata regolata al fine di rendere più veloce la ricerca di una partita come gruppo completo.- I gruppi completi ora possono scrivere "gg" nella chat per arrendersi dopo 30 minuti di gioco con lo stesso conto alla rovescia di 10 secondi, annullando l'interfaccia come nelle partite professionali. Questa viene conteggiata come una sconfitta. If you have Dota 2, the Steam Workshop now makes it easier than ever for you to submit finished 3D models of items or 2D images for a chance to have them accepted and incorporated into the actual game. Not only do makers of chosen items get to see their ideas come to life in Dota 2, they also receive a share of their items' sales from the Dota 2 store. Additionally, illustrators have the opportunity to create and participate in the revenue of 2D merchandise designs. This homepage has the following sections which contain a wide range of guidelines to help you create items for Steam's Dota 2 Item Workshop. Tickets to the International 2013 Dota 2 Tournament are being scalped on the Steam Marketplace for quadruple the original price. Always gotta mess with a good thing. I've always wanted Steam gift cards. Gift cards are cool. Sometimes I'm feeling generous, and want to give people things. Anyone else ever get that feeling? $20 generous, not $60-and-conversion generous. They can save up their present money like every other kid at Christmas. And I've always thought that the Steam wallet should be able to function that way. I don't need to put money in my own Steam wallet in case I want to buy things. I have a credit card. It does that too. var adunit_index = 4000; if (adunit_index != 1000 & adunit_index != 1001) || (adunit_index == 1000 && device_category != 'MOBILE') || (adunit_index == 1001 && device_category == 'MOBILE') { if (active_ad_units.pw[adunit_index] != undefined) { console.log('Dyn Unit Legacy PW', active_ad_units.pw[adunit_index], adunit_index); googletag.cmd.push(function() { var adunit_index = 4000; if (typeof(pubwise) != 'undefined' & pubwise.enabled === true) { console.log('Dyn PW'); pubwise.que.push(function() { pubwise.renderAd('div-sjr-4000'); }); } else { console.log('Dyn Direct'); googletag.display('div-sjr-4000'); googletag.pubads().refresh([gptadslots['div-sjr-4000']]); } //googletag.pubads().refresh([gptadslots['div-sjr-4000']]); }); } } So with the introduction of the Steam Marketplace beta, I thought Ah, progress at last! The Steam wallet would be, at last, useful. For something. Alas for me and my short seeing ways. Valve Corporation has decided to reorganize the 'The International 2013' Dota 2 tournament with an expected prize pool of more than a million dollars. The sixteen best international Dota 2 teams will compete in this offline gaming event at Benaroya Hall in Seattle. Tickets are sold exclusively on the Dota 2 store and priced at $49.99 USD, the same as last year. Ticketholders are granted access to the event venue for the entirety of the three day tournament from August 7-11. Well, things have gotten a little messy this year. Valve released its Legendary Tournament tickets earlier this morning in the Dota 2 store. They went up earlier than expected and were released in batches for an hour. During this hour-long period, access to the store was fraught with hang ups and technical difficulties. Since this morning, the Dota 2 Steam Marketplace has been flooded with resellers of the prized event tickets. (since each ticket must be activated from in-game backpack before it is consumed and registered on the Steam account.) From the original $50, it has since more than quadrupled in price, to about $230 by my last check. Yikes. Argue all you like for the joys of marketplace freedom, the rules of scarcity, and your own definition of fair; it is not in a company's good business to enable people to do this. There is a reason why eBay insists on capping the resale of concert tickets at the original price and a reason why scalpers are shady business. You're enabling people to rip other people off, and that's all there is to it. Not my cup of tea, thanks. UPDATE: All Steam Marketplace listings for the Legendary Tournament tickets have been removed. Action in, at most, 24 hours. Not bad. Valve.
